School Highlights

Academic Courses
Common Core learning targets are aligned in reading, writing, and math. Tiered intervention gives extension opportunities. Assessment and reporting (in standards-based format) are consistent at grade level district wide. PE is taught daily, music twice weekly, art once weekly.

Career Development Courses and Programs
This area is not applicable to an elementary (Kdg - Grade 8) school district.

Physical Education, Heath and Wellness
District 96 is committed to fostering wellness through daily physical education in Grades 1-8. Age-appropriate activities for varied learning styles, quality assessments, well-maintained equipment, and teachers' professional development distinguish the program. Each elementary PE program has been awarded IAHPERD Blue Ribbon recognition.

Athletics

Other Programs and Activities
The District provides a full special education continuum, programs providing moderate to minimal assistance, and specialized instruction meeting low-incidence needs. Structured and blended Early Childhood programs prepare preschoolers with special needs to succeed. English Language Learners receiving ELL support currently represent 38 languages.

School Personnel Resources
District 96 employs fully licensed highly qualified individuals to foster the educational and social development of all students. Newly hired teachers participate in a state-approved two-year mentoring program supporting their development as educators and their transition to the District's culture.

School Awards
Since 2007 District 96 earned five USDE Blue Ribbons, ISBE Academic Excellence, NAEYC accreditation, and Chicago Magazine's top county rankings. Staff are lauded by the Natl. Staff Development Council and All Things PLC for exemplifying collaboration to promote learning and with ISBE Those Who Excel honors. Financial rating is the ISBE's highest.

Facilities
All District 96 schools are state-of-the-art facilities managed by a five-year capital plan–reviewed annually with stakeholder input–that focuses on collaborative learning environments incorporating technology and prioritizing student and staff safety.
